

The University of Connecticut is committed to diversity through its recruitment, retention, research and academic programs. In partnership with Travelers Insurance, The Travelers EDGE program encourages and support ethnically diverse and first generational students from Greater Hartford to pursue careers in the insurance and financial services industry (IFS)

Scholarship & Financial Support

Travelers EDGE seeks to reduce the financial burden of students and their families by providing:

- Full in-state tuition and fees
- Textbook stipend
- Summer course stipend available
- Student development funds available
- Paid training and workshops

Mentoring Program

EDGE Scholars receive a professional mentor from Travelers beginning their freshmen year. The mentor will be invaluable in providing you with first-hand career knowledge and guidance :

- Build Networking Skills
- Build Business Relationships & Connections
- Gain Career Knowledge from Industry Professionals

Internship and Experiential Opportunities

EDGE Scholars will be able to apply for a paid internship at Travelers in Hartford and/or participate in EDGE Venture Project work on a business consulting project. Both opportunities provide:

- Professional Work Experience
- Business Skill Development
- Networking & Career Development

Training & Developmental Workshops

Travelers EDGE scholars receive unique professional training throughout the year and during the breaks. Past topics have included

- Project Management
- Effective Time Management
- Microsoft Office Training
- Case Study
- Learning Style

Giving you the EDGE
Toward college
SUCCESS!!!
