Current Catalog Copy

PP 5324. Resource Development for Nonprofit Organizations
3 credits. Seminar.

Important concepts in the fundraising process unique to local, national and international nonprofit organizations.

Proposed Catalog Copy

(See information in the "Add a course" form if you have any questions regarding specific items.)

PP 5324. Grant Writing and Fund Development for Nonprofit Organizations
3 credits. Seminar.

Core fundamentals of fund development and grant writing practices for nonprofit organizations.

Justification

1. Reasons for changing this course: The Master of Public Administration (MPA) program recently completed a curriculum review for the creation of the Graduate Certificate in Nonprofit Management. The name change better reflects the refocusing of this course to meet the grant-writing needs specific to the Nonprofit sector. PP 5324 is also a course offered to students as an elective in the MPA Program.
