

Measures and Software

Different versions of the PARQ and PAQ are available in up to 48 languages. The English versions of most measures are included in the handbook for the study of Parental Acceptance and Rejection, 4th Edition, available through Rohner Research Publications. The Handbook also contains other assessment tools relevant to research and practice on issues surrounding interpersonal acceptance and rejection. For a complete table of the languages in which the instruments are available, click here.
