MINOR IN

Healthcare Management & Insurance Studies

Top 5 Reasons

FOR A NON-BUSINESS STUDENT TO MINOR IN HEALTHCARE MANAGEMENT & INSURANCE STUDIES

1. Potential Jobs in a Huge and Growing Health Care Economy

The Health Care field is a growth industry that is becoming global in terms of its scope. It is one of the largest industries in the United States! 2.5 trillion dollars were spent in 2010, which is approximately 17% of GDP. It is expected to grow rapidly as “baby boomers” age and the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2010 fully kicks in.

2. Relevant and Interesting Courses

Required
• Introduction to Healthcare Management
• Health Care Industry Analysis

Choose three courses from the below:
• Health and Social Insurance
• Healthcare Financial and Human Resource Management
• Health Law and Policy
• Clinical and Social Issues in Health Care
• Risk Management and Insurance
• Life Insurance & Retirement Security
• Risk Management: Property & Liability Exposures

3. Experienced and Involved Advisory Board

• Comprised of prominent academic, business, and government healthcare and insurance leaders from Connecticut
• Advises on curriculum and staffing matters
• Provides mentoring, career counseling, and resume development to students
• Members act as guest speakers

4. Active Student Health Care Management Society

• Brings guest speakers on campus
• Interacts with the Advisory Board
• Invites recruiters on campus

5. Knowledgeable Faculty

• Resul Cesar, MBA, PhD
• Ronald Licata, BS, CPCU
• Rexford Santerre, PhD
• Tracey Scraba, J.D., MPH

QUESTIONS?

Please contact:
Professor Rexford Santerre
860-486-6422
rsanterre@business.uconn.edu
School of Business Room 460