The Center for Judaic & Middle Eastern Studies at UConn, Stamford, offers credit courses within the academic curriculum in the Humanities as well as non-credit outreach programs for the community at large in all areas of Judaic culture, literature, and history, from antiquity to modern times, Israel, Middle Eastern literature and politics, as well as in interfaith studies. Now in its twenty-seventh year, the Center has created a learning community around itself which gathers for intellectual discussions of scholarly and contemporary issues. The Center has been recognized for its innovative programs in the areas of traditional academic education and particularly outreach projects. Since its inception, the Center has enjoyed broad community recognition and has been financially supported by individuals, foundations, corporate gifts, and matching grants. The Center is a recipient agency of the United Jewish Federation of Greater Stamford, New Canaan and Darien and is also supported by the UJF of Westport/Wilton/Wilton/Norwalk. For information on our current programs and the Certificate in Judaic & Middle Eastern Studies, please call 203-251-9525.
