Dr. Susannah Heschel holds the Eli Black Professorship in Jewish Studies at Dartmouth College. Her scholarship focuses on Jewish-Christian relations in Germany during the 19th and 20th centuries, the history of biblical scholarship, and the history of anti-Semitism. Her numerous publications include Abraham Geiger and the Jewish Jesus (University of Chicago Press), which won the National Jewish Book Award, and The Aryan Jesus: Christian Theologians and the Bible in Nazi Germany (Princeton University Press).

Currently, Dr. Heschel is writing a book on the history of European Jewish scholarship on Islam from the 1830s to the 1930s. For that project, she received a Scholar's Grant in Islamic Studies from the Carnegie Foundation, and was given a fellowship in 2011-12 to the Wissenschaftskolleg in Berlin, an institute for advanced study.

Dr. Heschel has also published over a hundred and twenty articles and has edited and co-edited several books, including On Being a Jewish Feminist: A Reader; Redefining First-Century Jewish and Christian Identities: A Festschrift for E.P. Sanders; Betrayal: German Churches and the Holocaust; Moral Grandeur and Spiritual Audacity: Essays of Abraham Joshua Heschel; and Insider/Outsider: American Jews and Multiculturalism.

The recipient of many grants and awards, she has been a fellow at the National Humanities Center, and is the recipient of honorary doctorates from Colorado College, Trinity College, the University of St. Michael’s College (the graduate faculty in Catholic Theology at the University of Toronto), and the Augustana Theologische Hochschule, a Protestant seminary in Bavaria.

Prof. Heschel has held visiting professorships at Princeton, the University of Cape Town, the University of Edinburgh, and the University of Frankfurt. From 1999-2008 she served on the Academic Advisory Committee of the Research Center of the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum and on its subcommittees on fellowships, archival materials, and publications. At Dartmouth, she is on the faculty of the Jewish Studies Program, the Department of Religion, and the Women and Gender Studies Program.
