1) Welcome

2) Minutes

Linda Major, who was scheduled to present today, may be rescheduled for the February meeting.

3) Updates

   a. Town-University Relations Committee

       Nancy Silander reported the committee is waiting for the Spring Weekend Review Taskforce recommendations. Concerns were expressed about large weekend gatherings, especially at Carriage House Apartments. The Mansfield Downtown Project has zoning changes that will be submitted.

   b. Quality of Life Committee

       Jim Hintz reported that a draft of a nuisance ordinance was presented to the committee. An opportunity for public comment will be available if Town Council decides to move forward and consider the ordinance

4) Fall Outreach Survey

A copy of the survey results for the MCCP Fall Welcome Visits was distributed.
5) Town of Mansfield Police Study Update

A joint meeting to discuss the police services study was held on Thursday, October 28th with representatives from both the MCCP and Quality of Life Committee. The goal of the meeting was to collect feedback from the groups.

6) Alcohol/Caffeine Drinks: FourLoco

Combining alcohol with caffeine has become a hot new trend among college students. Four Loco is a line of alcoholic energy drinks. Four energy drinks have been the object of legal, ethical, and health concerns related to their being marketed to college students. Connecticut liquor wholesalers have agreed to voluntarily suspend their shipment and deliveries of the caffeinated/alcoholic drink that has been banned in four states.

7) Subcommittees

   a. Legislative Agenda

      The Subcommittee for the Legislative Agenda will do research and gain specific around topics that the MCCP can address. Some ideas discussed were Mandatory Server Training, CT Landlord/Tenant Law related to ability to address tenant behavior, Grant advocacy, Noise Ordinance changes to distance versus decibel of sound.

   b. Healthy Campus Initiative Grant

      The subcommittee will be meeting to discuss the CT Healthy Campus Initiatives grant. The application is due in January 2011.

8) New Issues/Ideas for Future Meeting Presentations

   Kevin Grunwald is working to get Chris Bartolotta from the Connecticut State Police to present on Party Hosting at the December MCCP Meeting.

   Possible January MCCP meeting presentation- Cathy Cocks from UConn Community Standards Office. Jim Hintz will be in contact with Cathy.
